

Corn, Nov. 30, 1863.

Dear Sir:

125

I am a stranger to you, but you are not to me, for during my residence in the U. S., I have heard, with admiration, your addresses on the Anti-slavery question, with which I have the deepest sympathy. And the object of my writing to you, is to ask your assistance to enable me to spread the same principles in the circle of my influence. An English church Minister, from Virginia, has lately arrived in these parts, of avowed pro-slavery principles, and is circulating among the people, a pamphlet by Bishop Hopkins, trying to prove that Slavery is a Divine institution. I purpose, to be best of my ability, answering this tract, in a sermon to the people, as soon as possible; but as there is very little of this kind of literary time here, from which to get inspiration, I have written to you, to sollicit you to send me, by express, at my expense, any tracts or books touching on this subject that you can. Very so doing, you will greatly oblige me, and aid the cause you so ably advocate. I am a true friend of the slave, as well as yourself.

Will you oblige by sending immediately, and address

Rev. S. Wilson,
Berlin,
Canada West.

Wm Garrison, Esq

P.S. - I have written to Mr. Henslee non Phillips, lest this might not reach at you
